

Commendation

Board of Supervisors, County of Alameda, State of California

June 6, 2015

Golden State Warriors

FOR WINNING THE WESTERN CONFERENCE CHAMPIONSHIP

WHEREAS, the Golden State Warriors came from Philadelphia to the San Francisco Bay Area in 1962 and have played basketball since 1966 at the Oakland-Alameda County Coliseum Complex, currently known as the Oracle Arena; and

WHEREAS, the Warriors are a source of great pride for Alameda County and the Bay Area; and

WHEREAS, the Warriors set a franchise record with 67 wins during the 2014-15 National Basketball Association (NBA) season and won the NBA Pacific Division; and

WHEREAS, the Warriors, with a breathtaking run of 12 wins and only 3 losses during the first three rounds of the NBA Western Conference Playoffs; and

WHEREAS, the Warriors, with a 104-90 point victory over the Houston Rockets on May 27, 2015, became NBA Western Conference Champions; and

WHEREAS, the Warriors, as Western Conference Champions will play in the NBA Finals for the first time in 40 years; and

WHEREAS, the Warriors support community programs in Alameda County such as Read to Achieve, a literacy program; Get Fit, a health program for youth; and the Warriors Foundation that provides opportunities and financial assistance to non-profit organizations;

NOW, THEREFORE, this Board of Supervisors, County of Alameda, State of California, commends the Golden State Warriors for their contributions to Alameda County and its residents;

AND FURTHERMORE, this Board of Supervisors salutes the Golden State Warriors for advancing to the 2015 NBA Finals and expresses its support and best wishes for the team as it seeks to win its fourth-ever NBA Championship and first since 1975.
