Utility Users Tax Exemptions

(Alameda County UUT Ordinance 2.12.050)

Agricultural Users

Exempt from this tax are charges for separately billed metered electrical energy and gas provided by the service to agricultural users for nonresidential use.

Government Agencies

Government Agencies are exempt from the taxes levied pursuant to the Alameda County Utility Users Tax.

General Exemptions

Any business or person that is taxed when imposition of such tax upon that person or business would be in violation of Federal or California statutes, the Constitution of the United States or the Constitution of the State of California.

Low Income

Exempt from this tax are persons qualifying for the low income rate assistance program (LIRA) offered by the Pacific Gas and Electric company.

Persons on Life Support

Exempt from this tax are gas and electrical charges for persons on life support systems who do not already qualify for the LIRA program.
